Diminish Drama By Carefully Hiring, Managing Family Employees

Want to watch a soap opera? Just turn on your TV around midday during the week. Where you don't want to see a soap opera is within your family business, especially if the drama involves your non-family employees. This article discusses the upsides and downsides of hiring relatives. A sidebar provides a handy checklist for assessing whether family members are indeed performing effectively.

Do You Understand Copyright Law?

The copyright symbol is everywhere, but do you know how it may affect your company's website or other published content? Every business owner needs a basic understanding of copyright law and, more importantly, how to protect a company's proprietary published work. This article explores how to establish copyright validity and what the typical lengths of copyrights are. A sidebar explains what a copyright can prevent others from doing.
