

Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP's News

Food, Fun and Giving Back at Our Summer of More BBQ!

Last month, we brought together team members for an afternoon of great food, fun, and community spirit. We started the day with our BBQ lunch grilled up by the Partners, and then 4 lucky winners got a chance to spin the prize wheel, winning some awesome prizes! Plus, an important highlight of the day was our School Supplies Drive supporting the Boys and Girls Club of Dorchester. We are so appreciative of our team members who donated supplies and helped fill backpacks at our event. Your generosity will help make a difference for kids getting ready to head back to school!

Events like these remind us of the power of building community, spending quality time with one another, and giving back to those in need.

Full Article

Family Business

A Shareholder Agreement Can Help You Prepare for the Unexpected

Stuff happens. Any experienced family business owner would likely agree. For this very reason, family-owned companies are urged to consider working with their professional advisors to create a shareholder agreement. This article lays out the critical issues addressed by such an agreement. A sidebar looks at shareholder agreements from a succession planning perspective.

Full Article

Business Tax

Selling Real Estate on the Installment Basis

If you own real estate that will produce a big capital gain when you sell it, you may be able to realize significant tax benefits by negotiating an installment sale of the property. This article explains how you qualify for installment sale reporting. It also details the three key tax breaks that you may be able to claim, as well as several tax traps that you will want to avoid.

Full Article

Delinquent Taxpayers May Experience Passport Issues

Tax debtors have more to worry about than notices from the IRS, interest and penalties. If they have "seriously delinquent tax debts," they may have passports revoked or not issued. This article explains how a law passed several years ago granted the federal government the authority to punish delinquent taxpayers using passports, as well as how the process works.

Full Article

Disclaimer of Liability

Our firm provides the information in this e-newsletter for general guidance only, and does not constitute the provision of legal advice, tax advice, accounting services, investment advice, or professional consulting of any kind. The information provided herein should not be used as a substitute for consultation with professional tax, accounting, legal, or other competent advisers. Before making any decision or taking any action, you should consult a professional adviser who has been provided with all pertinent facts relevant to your particular situation. Tax articles in this e-newsletter are not intended to be used, and cannot be used by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding accuracy-related penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer. The information is provided "as is," with no assurance or guarantee of completeness, accuracy, or timeliness of the information, and without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of performance, merchantability, and fitness for a particular purpose.

The information contained in this communication (including any attachments and/or re-directs to other online sources) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code.

Webinar content is intended for educational purposes only. Webinars provide a brief summary based on our understanding and interpretation of current law. All tax references are to federal tax law only, unless otherwise stated. The information contained in the webinars is general in nature and is based on authorities that are subject to change. It is not, and should not be construed as accounting, legal or tax advice or opinion provided by Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP. The material presented may not be applicable to, or suitable for, specific circumstances or needs, and may require consideration of non-tax factors and tax factors not described herein. Contact Gray, Gray & Gray or another tax professional prior to taking any action based upon this information. Changes in tax laws or other factors could affect, on a prospective or retroactive basis the information contained herein; Gray, Gray & Gray assumes no obligation to inform the reader/webinar attendee of any such changes. The material presented is not intended to, and cannot be used to, avoid IRS penalties. This material supports the marketing and promotion of accounting services. Seek advice based on your particular circumstances from independent tax, legal accounting, insurance, investment, and financial advisors.

