A Favorable Tax Credit Most Americans Overlook

A lot of people know they need to save for retirement, but find their finances are just too tight. And the tax code, which grows increasingly complex by the day, is no help. But there is a tax credit related to retirement savings, which is often overlooked. In fact, only one out of five people who qualify for the credit know about it. Continue reading to learn more about the credit and help educate your employees who qualify.

Workers' Compensation Vs. Disability Income Insurance

Among individuals who are 20 years old today, one in four will become disabled by the time they retire. The disability may or may not be work-related, but either way, most people aren't prepared for life with a disability. Disability insurance or workers' compensation can help meet the financial needs that are inevitable. This article explains the difference between the two types of insurance.

"We formerly had our employee benefit plan audit with one of the 'Big Four' national accounting firms, but knew that we were not getting the attention and service we needed. Making the switch to Gray, Gray & Gray was like night and day! We are getting the same degree of competence and experience, but with a much higher level of service. At much more reasonable fees, too!"
