Mergers & Acquisitions

Taking the Acquisition Route

Buying the assets or stock of another corporation is one way to quickly expand your business. But there are several issues to consider before making a final decision. Here's a look at the tax and non-tax consequences of an acquisition, as opposed to a merger.

Mergers & Acquisitions

Treating a Stock Purchase as an Asset Acquisition

It's a conundrum when making an acquisition: Should you deal with legal asset hassles or lose a tax break? That's often the bottom line when pondering whether to buy assets or stock in a target company. But there might be a way for a buyer to get the best of both worlds. This article explains how a Section 338 election might suit the interests of the buyer and the target.
